Jason and Angela Sweet are the brothers that make a comeback with their brother and sister. Despite letting their parents know he was gay, Jason Sweet decided to speak out and being gay is not a secret anymore. "It felt really natural. I believe people have the right to live the way they feel they need to. I believe that everyone has a right to live the way they want to live. I didn't really want to label myself but I guess it made me choose," Jason said. And after recently being married, they said that they know they're in love. "It felt great because in my personal life I have a really close relationship. What I learned from being straight is I have been married three times. I think being gay and being married is a wonderful thing," he said. Angela Sweet has also had numerous sex partners. "I was 19 when I found out I was gay and one of the first times I had sex was with a man and to be honest I still love it!" So who are Jason and Angela Sweet? That's the question everyone wants to know. "My mom talks about how uncomfortable it was for her when I came out. I mean we never had any conversation about it and I also think it's her fault. I feel like the fact that I came out to my mom did not help because she tried to keep my boyfriend and I a secret," Jason said. The two have also launched a foundation called the Sweet Brothers Foundation which works to help underprivileged women and children. "We want to make sure that they know they are important and if they need help we are here to help them. We want to say to the world and to ourselves that we are just like anybody else," Jason said. Jason and Angela Sweet are also married to each other 6d1f23a050
